Clive You

Abstract

Clive You is a third-year Burgmann resident and honours student in ANU. He studied Art History and Finance, and he is writing a honours thesis in marketing; he finds it is fun to explore different disciplines. Apart from university study, he enjoys creating his own aesthetics, for himself mostly, but surprisingly, his ideas about aesthetics works well in some internships and in social media business. Here are the selected works of his design, painting and photography.
