

Sometimes I cut things up

JESSICA BENTER

Collage on paper. 2018.

The two collages are constructed of found and personal photographs. The process of selecting, cutting, assembling and arranging the paper matter into different compositions is integral to the creation of the final arrangement.

